

LIPING MA – PLENARY, Senior scholar, the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, Menlo Park, California, USA

The missing pieces in the U.S. elementary mathematics

There are a few pieces of knowledge and skills “missing” in the U.S. elementary mathematics. I will discuss what these missing pieces are, why they have been “missed”, and how these pieces may play a significant role in students’ mathematics learning.